

Newsletter: year close 2023

Dear Colleague

It's been a busy year so far - I'm sure you'll agree. We hope this newsletter gives you some interesting insight into our '23 activities at Elemi.

If your learners are getting exam-ready for the IB Diploma exam session next month, then we wish them the very best of luck!

Is there more we could do to support your international learners with resources for their studies? If so, we'd love to hear from you!

~ Stay safe!

Toronto- thank you!

To be in Toronto for the IB Global Conference was wonderful. We loved the city, its people, and above all, that it gave us the opportunity to meet more educators from the Americas region face-to-face (and experience just how much they like our books). Thanks for the warm welcome!

All our downloads now available on TES.com

As well as all our downloads being available to anyone on the Elemi website, did you know you can also access them through the TES.com lesson resources website? And all for free!

In fact, since we launched the Elemi 'shop' on TES.com there have been more than 400 copies of our worksheets (some with activities) freely downloaded.

Our most popular download in October was our 'Guide to text types for IB DP English B'. All this means, of course, that our authors' original work is helping even more learners achieve their best in their studies.

A huge thank you to our very clever, creative authors - who are, of course, educators themselves and understand just what your learners need.

Guide to text types for IB DP English B has proved our most popular download on TES.com. Click here to download your own copy.

Suggested answers for vocabulary practice activities in A-Z for English B is our latest free download. Click here to download your own copy.
